Celebrate Lansing's Michigan Main Street Success with the MEDC

Enjoy an insider tour of emerging development sites in Lansing on June 7, 2023.

LANSING, Mich., – The Michigan Economic Development Corporation is hosting a full-day event that will provide an inside look at the community's Michigan Main Street developments. These projects will help bring new businesses and vibrant culture to the area. Local partners and municipality leaders will speak, and you can enjoy guided, on-site tours.

The event will celebrate the program's 20 years of success, where it has been a catalyst for job growth, private investment, and community engagement leading to comprehensive economic development creating more vibrant downtowns and traditional commercial districts in Michigan. From 2003 through 2023, 1,753 new businesses have been launched, with a total public investment of more than $137 million and total private investment of $407 million.
