The duties of the Novi Planning Commission are authorized by State Statute. The mayor nominates to the seven-member Planning Commission, with the approval of the City Council, for a term of three years. Members are volunteers from a cross-section of the community and serve without pay. Three members are appointed each June for terms beginning in July. The Planning Commission typically meets twice per month on Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m. (Specific dates and times are listed in the city calendar and are subject to change). All meetings are open to the public and televised on the local cable station, as well as shown live on the city's webpage.

The Michigan Enabling Act states that “A planning commission shall make an annual written report to the legislative body concerning its operations and the status of planning activities, including recommendations regarding actions by the legislative body related to planning and development.”
