

2012 Michigan Archaeology Day

Michigan Historical Center,
Lansing

Saturday,
October 6, 2012

11:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

REAL ARCHAEOLOGY!

Come and see what archaeologists have discovered during excavations in the Great Lake State. Learn about the thousands of years of Michigan history that has been uncovered through archaeological research.

- Hands-on activities for kids
- Presentations
- Demonstrations
- Exhibits and more

The Michigan Historical Center is located at 702 West Kalamazoo Street, Lansing

Go to michigan.gov/michiganhistory for details or call 517-373-3559.

Admission to the museum on Archaeology Day is free courtesy of the Michigan State Housing Development Authority. For information about archaeology in Michigan visit michigan.gov/archaeology.

Not paid for at tax payers expense.

