

Redevelopment Ready Communities®
is making training for Best Practices 1-6
available online.

WHAT: Detailed information, examples and implementation steps for achieving a solid planning, zoning and development foundation.

WHO SHOULD PARTICIPATE?

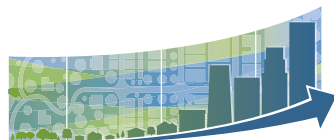

Staff and officials (elected or appointed) from currently engaged or certified RRC communities, including those local stakeholders that the community would like to encourage to participate in RRC efforts.

While in-person trainings will continue to be offered, online trainings offer an opportunity for currently engaged communities to encourage additional staff, officials and stakeholders to learn about and become active participants in local RRC efforts.

This training is offered at no cost.

Register at www.miplace.org/RRCtraining

Contact the RRC team at RRC@michigan.org with questions.

redevelopment ready
communities®